TOTAL WRECK

Surf, Cal., Jan. 13.-The steam chooner Sibly Marston, captain Schil-Ensky, which left Gray's Harbor, Thursday, for Rodondo with 1,000,000 feet of lumber, went ashore about a min F. Shively of South Bend for the mile south of Surf, at midnight Tuestay, and is now a total wreck. John McCarthy and Dick O'Neil, firemen, both of San Francisco, were washed from the deck by the high waves soon after the vessel struck, and were frewned.

The wreck was caused by the mistaking of the lights in the rail depot Arguello. The ship struck the rocks and stove a large hole amidships.

The vessel, which is owned by Escher and Minor of San Francisco, and valued at $138,000, will be a total Part of the cargo of lumber probably will be salvaged.

The schooner carried a crew of two mates.

The crew was unable to land last night, on account of the high water, which washed the lumber from the men reached the land in safety. They are now camped on the beach and will spend the night in the waiting room of the Surf station.

DID YEAR'S WORK IN A NIGHT. College Man Who Proved the Worthlessness of Examinations.

Some college professors insist that the examination system is a failure and they can cite instances which they believe bear out their side of the case. One of these faculty men, a recent graduate from a large university,

"When I was in college there was a man of great capacity who had neglected one course from his freshman year when he got a condition. When t came down to his senior year he had to make it up, but he let it go until the very last set of examinations. Then he had to get it off or lose his degree.

"This man knew so little of German, the course in which he was deficient, that he could not even read the printed words with ease, let alone understand them. But he passed the examination.

"He went to a man in his class who was proficient in German armed with sets of examination papers in that course for about six years back. They picked out the recurrent questions until finally they saw that there were enough which were included in the various papers of each year to insure a passing percentage.

"This man, who as I said was of great capacity, then proceeded to nemorize a correct answer to each of these questions. He had a keyword for each question, so that he would recognize it even if it were not worded exactly as the one on a previous pa-

"With this sort of work, which took him about all night, he went into the examination and passed off a year's work triumphantly.'

AT THE TOMB OF THE MINGS. to Travelers in China.

Every traveler in China goes to the tomb of the Mings if he stays more than a few days in Shanghai. The Chinese consider the Mings the greatest rulers of the ancient kingdom, and they rank second only to Confucius. The tomb is composed of two colossal figures facing each other, and elaborately carved in the style affected by Chinese artists centuries ago. Seen in Central Park or Versailles they would look grotesque enough, but standing as they do among bleak and lonely hills, outlined against the clear blue oriental sky, they have a rude grandeur and imposing simplicity which make them seem fit guardians of imperial dust.

It is not an easy journey the tourist must take if he wishes to pay his respects to the stone glants, nor is it a trip advisable for a woman to undertake, as it lies through a region where hatred of the "white devils" is considered as much a part of the Chinaman's religion as the worship of his ancestors. A donkey and a guide are necessary, and it is also wise to get a party of sightseers together for the excursion if possible, and to go well armed, for once a foolhardy traveler started forth alone from the hotel on the Rubbling Well road, Shanghai, to visit the tomb of the Mings, and he was never heard of again. There are many places in the purlieus of Shanghai even where it is imprudent for a white man to venture alone in broad daylight. An extra donkey is also needed to carry provisions as well as the cameras, for most tourists want a picture of the towering images which have so successfully withstood the wear of the centuries.

Done and To Do.

"If I ever sees again a certain party what was in here the other night, me and him comes to blows," said the walter in the New York restaurant "He puts away 35 cents' worth, hands me half a dollar, and says: 'Keep the change."

"'A 15-cent tip!' I says to myself. 'Well, well, things is looking up!' "So I helps him on with his over coat and bows him out most polite I hands the half a dollar acrost the the desk and the boss jingles it on the counter. 'Phony,' he says, 'and you'll have to make good.' "Wouldn't that give you a headache? The guy makes me pay for The his feed and then cheats me out of host did not permit a trifle like this the biggest tip I'd got in a week. But never mind. I'll shake it all right. The first half-souse that comes in here for a meal and hands me a bill, out he goes with a phony half dollar in his peans."

SHIVELY CHOSEN OVER JOHN KERN

Indianapolis, Jan. 14.—At 2 o'clock this morning the Democratic caucus of the Indiana legislature, after twenty ballots, chose Congressman Benja-United States senate. The last ballot stood as follows: Shively, 44; Kern, 15; Lamb, 5; Menzles, 2; Charles Moss, 1

Mr. Shively was escorted into the hall, made a brief speech and was loudly applauded. From the first bai lot, Shively developed more strength than was generally conceded to him at Surf for the lighthouse on Point and on the twentieth ballot received the sufficient number of votes to

John W. Kern, who had a good lead in the first ballot, was unable to mus ter enough strength to win the prize. His followers tried to force an ad journment of the caucus but were de feated by one vote. None of the other wenty men, besides the captain and candidates developed sufficient strength to be seriously considered in the race

Mr. Shively is a native of the county where he resides and is 52 years deck, but today a line was run from of age. He was a member of the shore to the wrecked craft, and the 48th, 50th, 51st and 52nd congresses 45th, 50th, 51st and 52nd congresses each time being chosen from a Re publican district. He was the Democratic candidate for governor in 1896, and received the Democratic vote of the legislature for senator in 1903 He is president of the board of trustees of the Indiana University.

WHILE ENTERTAINING A DUKE

A Few Suggestions Made by a Writer in Lippincott's.

Many people are unnecessarily embarrassed while a duke is visiting them. This is a great mistake. Of course a duke is a duke; but, then, there is no reason why he shouldn't be treated with a certain amount of respect. To do this it is not necessary to re spect him too much. Treat him with as much respect as you think he will stand, but do not lavish it upon him. If he leaves his boots in front of his door at night, do not feel that it is incumbent upon you to get up at six o'clock to shine them. Wait until the difference.

ter as much as he likes. If he resents this, tell him he can get even later. This might under some circumstances seem too candid: but it is better to meet him in a frank and open-hearted | WIND-ENGINE DRIVES DYNAMO manner. At night, before the duke goes to bed, sneak into his room and turn on all the steam. Being an Englishman, he may not understand this sudden warmth on your part, but you can explain to him the next morning when he fans himself down to the breakfast table, that it's only a foretaste of what he may expect later. Not being able to see a joke, he will probably think that you mean to pay all his expenses to Palm Beach, which will restore him to his good humor.

When you have a duke on hand, do not talk too much about your ancestors, or rub it in about your family. It might make him feel uncomfortable No duke likes to feel that he is marrying above him.

Naturally you will provide him, while he is with you, with the neecssities of life. It is extremely embarrassing when you invite some of your intimate friends in to see your duke to have him sit on the end of your davenport couch with fringe on his trousers and a false bosom to his shirt. Feed him, therefore, on good nourishing food, and make him as respectable as any duke can ever be made.-Lippinsott's Magazine.

WARNINGS FOR FLAT HUNTERS

There is an apartment house in The Bronx whose agent's idea of thrift and economy is "spend not a penny to-day that can be saved until to-mor row." He buys but one load of coal at a time for this apartment house and never orders a second load until the first is all gone. Then it takes the coal dealer 12 to 24 hours to deliver. Meantime the tenants burn gas and shiver. The agent also instructs the janitor to be extremely saving in the use of coal, in the furnace and in the boller. The result is that some days the so-called hot water is only warm and on other days it is entirely cold. routine and several of them have moved out since the winter set in. Others are posting notices in the hall the ordeal of the periodical ballot, for the benefit of flat hunters. Two samples are as follows:

"No; we don't furnish hot and cold water. We furnish two kinds of cold water.

"Six days in the week shalt thou have steam heat, and on the seventh day thou shalt burn gas or freeze, as pleaseth thee most."-New York

Congressman J. Hampton Moore's book, entitled, "With Speaker Cannon Through the Tropics," tells that the vessel on which the voyage was made was prevented from landing its distinguished passengers at Colon on the day of arrival because of a technical violation of the quarantine law of the isthmus of Panama. Finally the order was issued permitting the vessel to come up to the dock.

A pilot on shore was wigwagging signals to the pilot on the "congres sional junketeer" when Speaker Can non caught sight of the strange per formance. He was standing on the deck with Representative Moore at the time, and this question was addressed to the author-congressman: "What in — does that — fool
